As a church / organisation we undertake to meet the requirements of the Data Protection Act 1998, the Protection of Children Act 1999 and the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000

ADDITIONAL NOTES: WORKING WITH CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

The Disclosure of an offence may not prohibit employment. Please refer to our Rehabilitation of Offenders Policy. Because of the nature of the work for which you are applying, this position is exempt from the provision of section 4(ii) of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exemptions Order 1975), and you are not entitled to withhold information about convictions which for other purposes are "spent" under the provisions of the Act. You must therefore declare all convictions whenever they occurred. In the event of appointment, any failure to disclose such convictions could result in the withdrawal of approval to work with children and/or young people within the church.

As a church we agree to abide by the Code of Practice on the use of personal data in employee/employer relationships under the Data Protection Act 1998 as well as the expectations of the Criminal Records Bureau/Scottish Criminal Records Office.

Under the Protection of Children Act (PoCA) 1999 and the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000, it is an offence for any organisation to offer employment to anyone who has been convicted of certain specific offences, or included on the PoCA List or Department of Education & Skills List 99 where that employment involves regular contact with young people under the age of 18.
